CMS Practice Forum 2019 – an overview

A programme of practically oriented lectures delivered by cleaning industry professionals and targeting professionals will be taking place in Hall 6.2 on the Berlin Exhibition Grounds.

As the international platform for expertise in the cleaning and hygiene market, CMS Berlin 2019 – Cleaning.Management.Services. (24 – 27 Sept.) addresses every specialist audience in the cleaning sector. In addition to providing a comprehensive overview of innovations in cleaning machines and equipment as well as cleaning, care and disinfectant products, the CMS Practice Forum in Hall 6.2 on the Berlin Exhibition Grounds is holding concentrated advanced training events. Be it the latest topics on building cleaning, the new framework wage agreement, lectures and discussions for representatives of the healthcare, hotel and catering industries and municipal institutions, or topics on industrial safety, hygiene and general health: the specialist information provided by cleaning industry professionals represents the state-of-the-art knowledge required in day-to-day business.

The CMS Practice Forum is open to all trade visitors and exhibitors at the fair. Many of the lectures qualify as advanced training as designated by the professional organisation Qualitätsverbund Gebäudedienste. For the latest updates please visit www.cms-berlin.com/Praxisforum.
